TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT DOCUMENT PLEASE SIGN AND RETURN ONE COPY TO ENCHOR HEALTH CARE SERVICES

The terms and conditions set out below (the "Conditions of Membership") shall govern the relationship between Coghlan Lodges and you during any period in which you are providing your Health Care Services to Coghlan Lodges. There is no contractual relationship between us outside of these periods. It is a condition of Membership that you read and fully understand these conditions. We will be pleased to clarify any points you do not understand.

1. The Role of Coghlan Lodges

Coghlan Lodges is licensed in accordance with Care Quality Commission Regulations and any statutory modifications or re-enactments thereof. Coghlan Lodges will offer work to its Members within the Healthcare and when work is available. There is no obligation to offer any level of work to you or any obligation upon you to accept work.

2. Assignments

Coghlan Lodges makes every effort to find Members work in the Healthcare but will make no guarantee that we shall always be able to do this. Temporary work assignments are made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the terms of Business (copies of which are available upon request) Members must keep any appointments or arrangements that are made for them. Members who are unable to report for duty for any reason whatsoever must telephone Coghlan Lodges Manager immediately so that every effort can be made to find a replacement under no circumstances may any person who is not a Member of Coghlan Lodges be introduced to a case.

3. Payment

Coghlan Lodges makes payments to Members in advance of fees earned by them, and Members irrevocably appoint Coghlan Lodges to collect and recover fees, expenses, charges and extras in the name of Coghlan Lodges. Members will be paid regardless of Coghlan Lodges receiving payment from the client. All monies due to Coghlan Lodges will be deducted from the monies received from the client. All assignments must be booked through Coghlan Lodges. The payment rates are subject to change as negotiated with clients. Coghlan Lodges will not pay below the government minimum rate of £7.25.

4. Fees and Expenses

Payment in advance of fees earned by Members is made weekly by Bankers Automated Clearing Health Care Services (BACS), accompanied by a full statement. An appropriate deduction will be made in respect of Professional Negligence Indemnity Insurance (see clause 23 below) Accounts prepared by Coghlan Lodges on behalf of Members are usually submitted weekly.

5. Timesheets

Fully completed and signed timesheets must be submitted to the payroll branch weekly, to arrive no later than Monday noon, in order for payment to be made promptly. Failure to submit a completed timesheet may result in payment being delayed. To fulfil our record keeping obligations, hours worked will continue to be monitored on a timesheet basis. All timesheets must be completed correctly.

6. Members Employment Status

Members are self-employed in all cases. Members may be deemed employees for the purpose of PAYE and Class One National Insurance Contributions only in appropriate cases, PAYE tax deductions will be made from Members' fees and National Insurance Contributions will be collected by Coghlan Lodges. Because Members' "contracts" exist only for the period of each duty, Coghlan Lodges does not usually pay statutory sick pay. Members should make enquiries to their local DSS office with regard to sickness benefit. Members who are under Umbrella Companies and Limited Companies are not eligible for holiday pay or benefits from Coghlan Lodges due to that they are no PAYE deductions, Class one and two National Insurance Contributions.

7. Standards of Conduct

Members of Coghlan Lodges must at all times maintain the highest professional standards and comply with Coghlan Lodges' policies and procedures. Members are also required to adhere to the policies, procedures and requirements of the client and workplace and comply with the codes of conduct of any professional organisation to which they belong.

8. Uniform

Members will not be required to wear a uniform during working hours unless instructed otherwise by Coghlan Lodges Manager.

9. Changes to Personal Details

The member's Coghlan Lodges be notified immediately in writing of changes of address, telephone number or bank details. Failure to notify such changes may result in non-receipt of statement of fees and other correspondence loss of assignments, or incorrect or non-payment of fees.

10. Incomplete Assignments

Members wishing to leave an assignment before its completion must inform their Coghlan Lodges immediately and give at least one week's notice to the client.

11. Termination of Membership

Members may terminate their Membership with Coghlan Lodges at any time and one week's notice must be given if an assignment is in progress and likewise Coghlan Lodges may terminate Membership of the Temporary Worker at any time and one week's notice will be given if an assignment is in progress. If a Member wishes to take up any appointment with a client introduced by Coghlan Lodges within 6 months of the termination of Membership, the Member must notify their Coghlan Lodges branch in writing, as a fee will be due from the client. Failure to inform Coghlan Lodges will jeopardise future work opportunities or result in termination of Membership.

12. Client Care/Reports

Changes in patients' mental and physical condition should be reported to the appropriate person. Detailed records must be kept in accordance with both Client and agency requirements, as required by the Coghlan Lodges Branch Manager.

13. On-Call

For the purposes of the Working Time Regulations, time spent "on-call" whilst not working will not count towards a member's working time unless and until the Member is called to work.

14. Time Off

Members who wish to have time off from an assignment other than, as paid holiday must give Coghlan Lodges at least one week's notice to find a suitable replacement for the period of absence.

15. Paid Holiday

The Working Time Regulations provide that Members who work for 12 consecutive weeks (the qualifying period) will, from 1 October 2011 begin to accrue a right to paid holiday on a pro-rata basis equivalent to full time employment of 5.6 weeks per year. This right is broken should you cease to work continuously. However Coghlan Lodges has decided to offer greater benefits to you by giving you the entitlement to accrue 12.07% of the total hours worked in any given week. If you have a period of 6 months or more without undertaking any assignments you will need to re-work the qualifying period to accrue more hours. Coghlan Lodges holiday year commences from 1 April and runs through to the 30th of March. The purpose of the entitlement to paid holiday is to ensure that you take time off work; Coghlan Lodges therefore recommends that you do not work during your holiday period.

16. Working Hours

In compliance with the implementation of the Working Time Regulations, Coghlan Lodges recommends that working time (including any time that you personally provide your Health Care Services to anyone else) should not exceed 48 hours per week (average over a period of 17 weeks). However, should you wish to waive this right, please indicate this preference by ticking Yes/No in the box provided below. Members can withdraw the option to work in excess of 48 hours per week at any time by providing 3 months written notice to their local Coghlan Lodges. Working Time shall include only the period of attendance at each individual assignment through Coghlan Lodges. It shall not include travelling time unless specifically agreed in advance by the Coghlan Lodges Manager.

17. Daily Rest Period

All members should be provided with the opportunity to take 20 minutes unpaid break during assignments of 6 hours duration or more. It is the responsibility of the Member to ensure this is taken in the course of work. Members are entitled to take 11 hours of consecutive rest per day. In circumstances in which flexible practice is required such as home care, sleepovers, hospitals, residential homes, prisons. etc., and there is no opportunity to take rest breaks, this is permitted providing an equivalent break or compensatory rest period is agreed at the convenience of the Member and Client. However, where an agreement has been reached by collective means within the established workforce,

Members will be bound by that agreement in relation to working hours. This will not entitle Members to any other benefits or provisions under such collective agreements. Members are not entitled to receive pay during any rest breaks.

18. Shift Workers

Members are entitled to 11 hours of daily consecutive rest, but this does not apply in relation to shift workers who cannot take a daily rest period between the end of one shift and the start of the next one. In these circumstances, clause 17 relating to rest period applies and an equivalent break of compensatory rest period must be agreed at the convenience of Member and Client and agreed weekly hours must not be exceeded.

19. Night Shifts

Members have the opportunity to undergo a health assessment prior to night duty assignments for which they will not be charged. (This can be arranged through their local branch.) Night duty hours must not exceed 8 hours in 24 hours, and this is averaged over a standard period of 17 weeks. (In certain circumstances in which flexible practice is required, clause 17 relating to rest periods applies, and individual agreements between the Member and Coghlan Lodges branch management must be reached if night hours are to exceed this limit. In these circumstances, an equivalent break of compensatory rest period is agreed at the convenience of the Member and Client.)

20. Members' Health

Membership of Coghlan Lodges is conditional upon true statement of the details of a Member's mental and physical health as set out in the application form, and upon the understanding that a Member must be in a state of good health when reporting for each and every duty. Failure to provide all accurate declaration of health or to update the local Coghlan Lodges branch of any change could jeopardise Coghlan Lodges Membership.

21. Health and Safety

Members, as self-employed persons, determine their working hours through accepting or refusing assignments offered. Members are individually responsible for ensuring their chosen working hours (including all work other than through Coghlan Lodges are compatible with their own health and safety at work and that of patients, clients and colleagues. As self-employed persons, Members have a personal responsibility to regard health and safety policies and fully co-operate with those in charge of the workplace. Members are required to assess for any risks in the workplace and maintain a safe environment both for themselves, other staff and Clients. Often, this will involve working to established health and safety practices, but private householders are unlikely to have such a detailed knowledge, so particular care is required when providing home care services. Members are also requested to report any communicable diseases to the Branch Manager, even following termination of contract. This enables Coghlan Lodges to fulfil the obligation under RIDDOR (reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations, 1995) to protect both Client and staff health and safety, whilst maintaining optimum confidentiality to all Members.

22. Negligence

If a Member is removed from an assignment or a complaint for misconduct or professional negligence is received, Coghlan Lodges reserves the right to withhold payment in advance of fees earned by the Member.

23. Identification

Members must carry their NMC PIN card and wear a Coghlan Lodges ID. Badge at all times whilst on duty, or whilst on the Client's premises, going to, or coming off, an assignment. Members will be issued with 2 ID Badges and will be charged a £5.00 penalty fee to replace a lost ID Badge.

24. Data Protection

Coghlan Lodges holds information on Members' racial or ethnic origin, religious beliefs, and health and criminal records. This sensitive information is held for monitoring purposes only. However, Coghlan Lodges may use other, non-sensitive information supplied by you to occasionally send, or arrange to send, information which we believe will be of interest to Members. If you do not wish us to pass on this non-sensitive information about you please mark the relevant box below.

Please tick 1 box only for each question
